The Gladiolus

A delightful flower for the home garden. It grows from bulbs which increase in number from year to year. Plant them in shallow furrows any time in late April, May or June. Then keep the weeds down and the ground stirred occasionally. That is all there is to it except the cutting of the great spikes of wonderful lily-like blooms which last ten days to two weeks in water. Dig up the bulbs in late fall and carry them over winter like potatoes in your cellar. Gladioli are just the flower for the renter. One can always move bulbs. Remember we pay transportation on all stock you order.

FANCY MIXED. A really superb blend of the finer sorts showing almost every shade and marking to be found in Gladioli. Try a hundred of these, planting in four lots at intervals of two weeks. They will give a succession of flowers for cutting from late July until frost and you will find more bulbs than you planted when you come to dig in November. Dozen 45c; 50 for $1.75; 100 for $3.25; 500 for $14.00.

NEW HYBRIDS. An extra early strain running largely to shades and tints of primrose, saffron, apricot, bronze, bluish and rose. Price, same as Fancy Mixed.

BARON JOSEF HULOT. Rich, dark, indigo blue. 3 for 35c; 12 for $1.10; 50 for $4.25.

AMERICA. Shell pink. The most popular sort on our list. 3 for 15c; 12 for 50c; 50 for $1.60.

SCHWABEN. Giant yellow. Canary buds opening to sulphur. 3 for 25c; 12 for 90c; 50 for $3.50.

OTHER GLADIOLI. We have a long list of other varieties such as Blue Jay, Willie Wigan, Red Emperor, Flora, etc. Ask for prices.

Hardy Field-Grown Roses

Every garden, no matter what may be its dominant theme, needs roses, few or many, to bring out its fullest beauty.

Our roses are all strong, heavy, field-grown plants, two years old, and should not be compared with the little tender one year greenhouse stock so often offered at seemingly low prices.

Remember our prices include delivery. We pay all shipping charges.

Ornamental Shrubs

Planted along the foundation wall the arching branches of the shrubs hide harsh lines and help to blend house and lawn into one harmonious landscape. The taller growing sorts have an additional value for screens and back-grounds and the following varieties show their rare beauty in carefully space specimen plantings.

BRIDAL WREATH (Spiraea Van Houttei). Unquestionably the finest hardy shrub, beautiful at all times. It makes a graceful yet fairly dense arched growth with pretty dark green foliage. In May and June the branches droop under their weight of clustered flowers until the tips touch the ground, the whole plant changing to a fountain of snowy bloom. Effective as specimen or for massing against buildings and backgrounds of blue or dogwood. Each, 50c; 10 for $1.00.

BUSH HONEYSUCKLE. Smaller plants for hedging. 100 for $30. flowers followed by rich vinous red ivy berries that hang on the branches through summer and autumn. Feathered foliage, almost evergreen. Each, 50c; 10 for $1.00.

HYDRANGEA PANICULATA. In late July come the massive panicles of the Hydrangea, pure white at first but aging through all the shades of pink to bronze and remaining on the bushes until winter. A strictly hardy shrub giving best results when grown on rich soil and severely pruned. Each, 75c; 10 for $6.00.

JAPAN BARBERRY. Dwarf thorny shrubs with small bright green leaves that turn to scarlet and gold in Autumn. The branches hang full of big red berries all through the winter. Barberry is of broadest hardiness, never killing back, and it makes the best of infertile chertstone ledges. Each, 50c; 10 for $1.00; 100 for $30.00. Smaller plants, 25c each; 100 for $20.00.

CARAGANA HEDGE PLANT. For 100, $20.00. Small size, per 100, $12.00.

TRUE PURPLE LILAC. A dainty flower with a fragrance that brings back old memories. Tall growing. Each, 75c; 10 for $6.00.
